With big names such as Ted Baker and Firetrap in House of Fraser, plus high street fashion from Monsoon, H&M, Next, Jones Bootmaker, River Island and Laura Ashley to name but a few, Parade effortlessly combines high street fashion with a myriad of designer labels.

For gifts, and treats, why not take a peek at Whittards' incredible china range, Robert Charles Leathergoods, or health and beauty products at The Body Shop, Boots and Superdrug - all on the Parade.

NORTH-WEST

For lads' brands that include Comune and Gravis, with Yumi and Lovestruck for the girls, head to Contraband on Warwick Street. Across the road you'll also find Karabo stocking womenswear from Religion, Joe's Jeans and Hudson. Meanwhile, for vintage items and one-offs Tiger and Magpie are absolute gems.

Probe a little further and you'll discover superb men's casual gear at Kong, and limited designer labels such as Junk De Luxe at Kudos Menswear on the corner of Bedford Street and Windsor Place. While parents and kids will love the unique toys and accessories at Kinderroom.

SOUTH-WEST

Running through the heart of the town, Regent Street is bursting with beautiful boutiques such as Lilac Rose with brands that you can't find everywhere and high street names like Chesca, Shuropody and Bravissimo. At the far end of the street, enjoy the friendly service at The Dressing Room while trying on pre-loved one-off designer wear and for that special occasion why not adorn a fabulous fascinator from Hats & Co?

Unique gifts are aplenty at Planet Bong and Stone the Crows but if you want to keep the kids occupied, step into the fantasy table-top battle world of the Games Workshop

Gentlemen may want to browse the superb range of classic town and country menswear offered by F Hazell Smith or for top fashion brands including Firetrap, Mish Mash and Diesel jeans, head for Guide London. For cool footwear like Etnies and CIRCA, Brand is definitely the place to go.

SOUTH-EAST

With an enviable combination of well-known brands and independents, the south-eastern side of town includes high-class names such as LK Bennett and Jaeger within Regent Court or for funky street-wear, try SuperDry in Satchwell Court. If you have a love of all things outdoors, head for Two Seasons, Fat Face or Parkinsons while Noa Noa offers beautiful, Danish-designed womenswear.

This area is great for gifts to covet. Take a browse around Filthy But Gorgeous, Walnut and Weave, La Maison Bleue and Cologne and Cotton for delectable presents, or try the Cook Shop for an Aladdin's cave of culinary gadgets.
